

“Reflections on the Global Financial Crisis”

Saul Eslake

Project Director – Grattan Institute
Former ANZ Chief Economist

Wednesday 2 December 2009
commencing 12.30 p.m. sharp

The Australian German Association invites you to lunch with Saul Eslake at 12:30 pm on Wednesday 2 December 2009 at The Union, University & Schools Club, 25 Bent Street, Sydney.

Before joining the Grattan Institute, a new think tank aiming to shape the direction of debate on many of the important challenges facing Australia, in August Saul Eslake has been Chief Economist of the Australia & New Zealand Banking Group (ANZ) since August 1995. He was a member of ANZ's Group Asset and Liability Committee, which oversees the management of the Bank's balance sheet, and is also Chairman of ANZCover, the Bank's internal fraud, crime and professional indemnity insurer.

Saul began his career as an economist in the Commonwealth Public Service, including two years at the Treasury in Canberra. Prior to joining ANZ, he was Chief Economist (International) at National Mutual Funds Management (now part of the AXA Insurance group) and, before that, Chief Economist of the stock broking firm McIntosh Securities (now part of the Merrill Lynch group) from 1986 to 1991.

Saul has a first class honours degree in Economics from the University of Tasmania, and in 2003 he completed the Senior Executive Program at Columbia University's Graduate School of Business in New York.

Saul has been member of three Federal Government advisory panels in recent years – the Tourism Forecasting Committee, the Trade Policy Advisory Council, and the Foreign Affairs Council. As an expatriate Tasmanian Saul also maintains links with his home State, as a Board Member of the University of Tasmania Foundation, and Chairman of the Tasmanian Arts Advisory Board.

Members are encouraged to bring guests.
