

“Finding our Feet: Australia's Options in the Chinese Century”

Hugh White
Prof. of Strategic Studies
Australian National University

Wednesday 17 March 2010
commencing 12.30 p.m. sharp

The Australian German Association invites you to lunch with Prof. Hugh White at 12:30 pm on Wednesday 17 March 2010 at The Union, University & Schools Club, 25 Bent Street, Sydney.

Hugh White is a Visiting Fellow at the Lowy Institute for International Policy and Professor of Strategic Studies at the Australian National University. He publishes widely on Australian strategic and defence policy, and the regional and global security issues that most directly affect Australia.

Hugh has worked on Australian strategic, defence and foreign-policy issues for 30 years in a number of capacities inside and outside Government, including as the first Director of the Australian Strategic Policy Institute (ASPI) 2000-2004, the Deputy Secretary for Strategy in the Department of Defence 1995-2000, Senior Adviser on International Affairs to Prime Minister Bob Hawke 1990-1991, and Senior Adviser to the Defence Minister Kim Beazley 1984-1990. He was the principal author of the 2000 Defence White Paper. In the 1970s he studied philosophy at Melbourne and Oxford Universities, and was awarded Oxford's John Locke Prize in Mental Philosophy in 1978.

Members are encouraged to bring guests.
